FLOAREA SOARELUI

MISSION DETAILS

Study this photograph carefully, Bula.

This car is the Berlina 2000, code named SUPER DACIA. It is one of the most advanced automobiles anywhere in the world. Its current location is the village of Floarea Soarelui, high up in the Transylvanian Alps; a village populated by peasants so stupid it is rumoured that they still believe Ceausescu to be the president. Of course, you know this village very well already, Bula: it's where you come from.

No one has been in or out of this village for the last twenty years. How it is that these people have managed to develop this vehicle - with its onboard computer, SIT - is unknown. Your mission is to penetrate the village, find the Super Dacia and steal it.

Good luck, Bula. You're going to need it.
