RULES

1. By entering the competition, competitors will be deemed to have accepted and agreed to abide by the rules.
2. The competition is open to all UK and Eire readers other than employees or their families of Orbis Publishing Ltd. and their advertising and servicing agents.
3. All valid entries will be examined.
4. The first prize will be awarded to the competitor who selects, in the judges' opinion, the most suitable answers to the questions listed. In the event of more than one competitor qualifying for the first prize this will be awarded to the qualifying competitor who, in the judges' opinion, submits the most apt answer to the special tie-breaker question above. A similar basis will be adopted for determining the winners of the runner-up prizes. No household may win more than one prize.
5. All entries must be in ink or ball-point pen on a postcard or sealed envelope.
6. The closing date will be three weeks after publication of this issue. Winners will be notified by post and a full list of winners will be available by post on supply of a S.A.E. one month after the closing date.
7. No responsibility will be taken for entries lost, delayed or damaged in transit. Proof of posting cannot be accepted as proof of delivery.
8. Illegible entries and entries not made in accordance with the rules and directions will be disqualified.
9. All entries submitted will become the copyright of Orbis Publishing Ltd. and no entries can be returned.
10. The judges' decision is final and legally binding, and the decision of Orbis Publishing Ltd. on all other matters concerning the competition will also be final and legally binding. No correspondence will be entered into.

This competition is open to readers in the UK and EIRE only.
